
RAY PONS

Keynote Speaker, Business Coach, Author

If you are looking for a top-notch business coach to help drive greater levels of success in business, or if you seek an uplifting, no-nonsense and genuine speaker to kick off a meeting, convention or conference, then Ray Pons might be who you want. Ray is known as The Ambassador of Excellence and he is dedicated to helping organizations and people find their greatness – greatness in business and greatness in life.

“You were created to achieve excellence; there is greatness within you, waiting for you to find it!” Ray Pons

Born into a working class family close to Liverpool, England Ray grew up in the baby-boom era of the Beatles and Merseybeat music. He arrived in Canada at age 23 with no job, no connections and no real prospects but what he did have was a desire for a better life.

His experience includes sales manager, life insurance broker, reinsurance executive and owner of several small businesses, some great successes ... some great crash-and-burn “learning experiences”. As a keynote speaker and business coach Ray speaks on issues of personal leadership, strategic thinking and performance excellence.

“There is greatness inside you; when would now be the ideal time to find it?” Ray Pons

Ray’s keynotes are humorous, thought-provoking presentations that will make you laugh, make you think and touch your heart. Authentic and believable, both onstage and off, his straightforward style will engage those in attendance with inspiring, meaningful, moving stories encouraging us all to never give up on our pursuit of a better tomorrow and never settle for less than greatness and fulfillment of our greatness potential.

As a strategic business coach he has a proven system to help business owners, managers and executives make more money, work less hours and add greater balance, joy and freedom in life.

“Trust in yourself, love others and leave a legacy.” Ray Pons

Ray is the author of “Finding My Way – And How You Can Find Yours” and an eBook “Small Business Success – Seven essential keys to start, grow & sustain a small business.”

To book Ray or to learn more about his coaching services contact:

ray@raypons.com

Phone 905.967.0119 Mobile 905.713.7815